

- 1 John has a daughter going to College soon and wants to help her find a good major for her.

- 2 John has decided to use Major Hub to find high paying majors for his Daughter to look into

- 3 John gets on the website and is greeted with the default page, it lists the most popular majors searched on the site

- 4 John has noticed his daughter is into Biology so he looks up Biology in the search bar. A list of related majors pops up with some salary data next to them.

- 5 After looking at the list, John chose Biochemical engineering and went to the Biochemical engineering page. On the page he saw a description, a Time x Salary graph for the major. And a section for related majors.

- 6 After looking at the information about bioengineering, John thinks his daughter would be interested.

- 7 John told his daughter about the Biochemical Engineering Degree and his Daughter, Tartaglia said she would look into it!

- 8 John was happy with his experience with Major Hub as it helped him find a good major for his Daughter!